FAMILIES OF ANDOVER

COMPILED BY

CHARLOTTE HELEN ABBOTT

of ANDOVER

John (1) Frye, b. 1601, was of Basing, Hants, England. With his wife, Ann(Stratton) and young children, he embarked at Southampton, May, 1638, for the colonies. He first settled in Newbury, where he was a freeman, 1638, and was recorded as a wheelwright and millwright. He was in ANDOVER, 1645, and in 1651 was one of the two men in the county, licensed to sell strong drink to the Indians. This was sold only as medicine and no more than 1 pt. could be sold to one person at one time.

Their home was first near the Bradstreet house, supposedly near what is now known as "Carney's Corner", on site of the home owned by Mrs. Dan Smith. After this was burned, John built a second house on what is now Chestnut street, on left side of the street, opposite the Enoch Frye house. John (1) died Nov.9, 1693. Aged Oct.22, 1690.

TIMOTHY FRYE

"I loathe it: I would not live alway; let me alone: for my days are vanity."

Timothy Frye will be 91 years old the 26th of this month. He has had eleven children; five are now living. In early life he was remarkably patriotic and enlisted in the Revolutionary War at the age of sixteen to supply the place of his father, whose time of service had then expired.

Mr. Frye is a tanner and currier by trade and for a great many years carried on an extensive business in that line in the West Parish.

In his day he was remarkably resolute, being oftentimes drawn as a juror and has almost invariably been foreman.

For the last twelve or fifteen years he has been blind and otherwise superannuated so that life has become a burden. The fine gold has become dim; he feels no satisfaction in life; can be of no service to others and is impatient to be gone.

Mr. Frye has lived in this town 69 years. He was a native of Dracut. He was married to his present wife, 56 years ago. He is the oldest male resident of this town.

Persis Frye, wife of Timothy, will be 84 on Oct. 3, this year. She is a native of Andover, daughter of Benjamin Frye, who was a nephew, and inherited the estate of his uncle, Capt. Nathaniel Frye. (Now the home of Rufus W. Smith and Family, at end of Chestnut street, across Salem turnpike, in North Andover.) Her father was taken prisoner by the British, while a privateer, and carried to Halifax. After remaining there awhile he was released by exchange and returned home.

It was soon found that he had contracted smallpox before leaving the prison and he died soon after returning home.

Mrs. Frye is a great reader; never wears glasses, and although much stooped and trembling is quite inclined to travel about and has walked to church two or three times during the summer.

Persis' sister -in-law, Susannah Frye, nee Baker, is now 86 years old. She is a native of Andover and the widow of Joseph Frye, who died in Canada."

From THE TOWNSMAN- Historical Column, No. 29. by Mr. Carpenter:-

" Capt. Reuben Frye, a well known mason, built the West Parish Church, 1826, and the same year, built the Andover Bank. Frye, Brown and Rice did the wood work . Rice and Frye built the old stone academy, now known as the Stowe House; the brick block in Frye Village, etc.

Reuben Frye was Capt. of Artillery. He fired the salute on the common, opposite the Mansion House, when Lafayette came here, June 1825. He died in Lowell, where he resided with his son.

"R.F." on an old well sunk in Frye Village at George Burnham's home, was very likely Reuben Frye's work, and he may have lived there."

Chas. Frye, shoemaker of Lawrence, kept a store and boarding house in the Vale , with Osgood Dascomb for a partner for a while. The store was in the old Ballard house then owned by the Ballardvale Co. It burned down mysteriously in 1849 with much loss. Dascomb went to California

John Frye and Henry Abbott had a tannery in the Vale about 1860. They dressed hides and made belt lacings; gave it up in 1863.

Probate Feb. 5, 1776.

"Favored with due exercise of understanding, thanks to Almighty God, and being engaged in the Army, in the cause of American liberty and appreciating that my life is in danger of being destroyed by those that are enemies to the rights and property of their country, I make my will."

To his wife, Sarah, 1/2 the estate, goods, stock, produce, Indian Corn, English grain; 1/2 the bonds and notes. Son Frederick is to pay the legacies. She is to have the North room, the best bed and pictures in the Great chamber; lands in Methuen that Capt. John Cheever gave him a deed of. (Her father).

To James Frye, of Methuen, and his heirs forever, all lands East side the Methuen road, from Sam Williams line to Webber's line- to the Merrimac- and buildings thereon. Jonathan and Sarah to have right to pass and repass through this land to the river, when convenient. James is to have a silver can,

Jonathan was to have the rest of the land in Methuen, a silver can and 2 volumes of Gravesend's Natural Philosophy and the Col.'s gun.

To daughter Elizabeth, wife of Sam Frye, 40 £ and a silver porringer and silver spoon. To grandchildren, children of Joanna Farrington, dec., - Thomas, 6 £ 13 sh.; Sarah, 20 £; Elizabeth, 13 £; - - to dau. Sarah, wife of John Boyden, " the land I bought of Tom and John Orne in Conway, a district in Deerfield, on which Boyden lives. At his death it is to go to sons, John and James Boyden.

"To daughter Hannah, wife of Daniel Poor, 40 £ and silver porringer and silver spoon. To Dorcas, wife of Ezekiel Carleton, silver porringer and spoon and 26 £, as she got the rest at her marriage. To dau. Molly Frye, 90 £, and porringer and spoon- to go to Fred, if she dies unmarried

To daughter Pamela, 50 L at 18, a porringer and spoon. Pamela and Molly are to have the North room and the use of two closets; the kitchen in North part- the West cellar, dividing the cellar from the SW corner of the arch to the West wall- and to have liberty to go through the kitchen to the cellar and the use of the well for water; also liberty to cut and haul wood from land near Michael Carleton's.

Son Fred is to have all the rest and 1/2 the Negro servants- excepting His father's rights in Andover Library and pew in North Church. James and Jonathan are the heirs if Fred dies.

" When any of my children visit my mansion house they shall be treated kindly by Fred." (Fred was only 16 at this time.)

(Ben Stevens, 3rd; Nath'l Lovejoy; Andrew Foster, witness.)

 The Col. James (4) Frye home was turned over to Nath Peters; then to Mrs. Grozelier and is now owned by Mr. Harry Clark. The "Frye Elm" stood near it-planted by chaplain, Jonathan Frye. The site of the elm was purchased by some one, in order to save the tree, which stood until pronounced unsafe. It would be a good idea to plant another there.

THE GLEASON FAMILY
OF ANDOVER

Thomas Gleason took the oath of Fidelity at Watertown, before William Bond, June 1, 1652. As he was then a man of 41 or 45 years of age, married, with several children, it is extremely probable that the oath was taken very soon after his arrival in this country, as at that time the authorities were very prompt in calling upon strangers to take the oath, because of troublesome situations that might arise, questioning their authority over persons who did not expressly recognize it.

The name was spelled LESON by Bond, and this spelling without the "G", seems to have been the popular mode down to 1700, and was used frequently down as far as the Revolution, although in Court records and formal documents the "G" was used.

From affidavits in the County records it appears that Thomas was born either in 1607 or 1611. His wife was Susanna Page, born 1616, a sister of William Page of Watertown. They had eight children recorded and possibly were the parents of Susanna Gleason, b. 1639.

The family continued to live in Watertown until 1655 or 6, when they removed to Cambridge, just a short distance over the line. In 1657 Thomas rented the Dunster farm on Massachusetts Ave., west of Alewife Brook or Menotomy River, as it was then called. In 1659, he rented from Capt. Scarlett the Major Gibbons farm or Squa Sachem reservation, which he occupied until 1665. In the winter of 1665-6 he returned to Cambridge where he lived until his death, either in 1686 or 1687. Susanna probably died in Jan. 1690/1. Among their children were :-

THE GODFREY FAMILY

of ANDOVER

The career of John (1) Godfrey of Andover, seems to have been a stormy one. He was recorded here in 1648, and was said to be a former resident of Haverhill and Newbury. According to Bailey's "Sketches of Andover", he was a hired man, carpenter, herdsman and Jack of all trades. He was noted for feats of strength, sleight of hand tricks and was a good schemer. In addition, he seems to have been a person unafraid of expressing his convictions, for his name figured more prominently in early Essex Court cases than that of any other man in the county.

In 1649, according to Vol.1;109 Essex Ct. records-- John Godfrey of Andover told lies, and Nathan Parker appeared as a witness.

In 1659 he was in difficulties with persons in Haverhill, who owed him money. They petitioned the Court to arrest him and charged him with witchcraft, declaring that he connived with the devil and that Satan, in the shape of a bear, caused them to suffer personal and property losses and made them ill. This was 43 years before the violent Witchcraft scare rocked Essex County.

The Rev. Mr. Dane aided Godfrey and declared that he doubted the intervention of Satan in John's behalf, and Godfrey was freed of all charges. He however was not through with his accusers, for he turned about and brought suit against them for slander and defamation of character. The wife of Job Tyler was one of those who had accused him.

On July 3, 1670, John Godfrey of Andover, a planter, fixed his X (his mark) to a deed (Ipswich 4:8) wherein he granted to Ben Thomas, schoolmaster of Boston, all estates, debts, bonds, money-real and personal property this side and beyond the sea, to have and to hold as soon as he died.

NOTES - The Townsman -

"Joseph C. Goldsmith, an old and well known resident of the Scotland District, died at his home last Monday, at the age of 64 years. Deceased was a member of Post 99, G.A.R. and a delegation from that organization, consisting of Commander George F. Holt, Junior- Vice, J. Warren Berry, Adj. Ballard Holt and John L. Smith, acted as pall bearers. The funeral was held yesterday, with the Rev. F.W. Klein of the Baptist Church officiating. Burial was at the South Cemetery."

NOTES- THE TOWNSMAN - 1896.

(Russell)
" Mrs. Phebe, /widow of the late J.C. Goldsmith, fell asleep on June 12, after a few days ' sickness, at the home of Mrs. C.A. Shattuck, Main St., aged 89 years, 2 months, 13 days.

She was the mother of seven children all of whom attained middle age. When the first death occurred she was in her 85th year.

She was born at the Russell homestead, March 30, 1807, and always resided in the Scotland District. She leaves five children : Mrs. James H. Goldsmith, Mrs. C.A. Shattuck , of Andover; Mrs. N.H. Greene, Mrs. W.G. Parker of Ballardvale, Mrs. George K. Dodge, of Ipswich

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. F.W. Klein. Interment was in South Cemetery.

THE TOWNSMAN - 1901

" Mrs. Lozina (Goldsmith) Waldo died Sunday, at the advanced age of 87 years, 11 months and 14 days. Daughter of a soldier and grand daughter of two more Revolutionary heroes , she was connected in a large measure with the two past centuries.

She was born in Andover, Jan. 27, 1813. the youngest of the 11 children of Jeremiah Goldsmith and Sarah Converse. When 19 years of age she married Jonathan Waldo.

Her father, Jeremiah Goldsmith, enlisted when a mere boy, as a drummer, in Capt. Abbott's Company of the Army of Cambridge, Dec. 9, 1775. He remained in service throughout the war and at the surrender of Burgoyne, stood within a few yards of Gen. Gates.

Mrs. Waldo also had two grandfathers who served in the American Army during the Revolutionary War, William Goldsmith of Andover and Joseph Converse of Bedford.

The deceased was born in the house built by her father on the Boston Turnpike, "over the hill", and lived there for many years. For three years she has lived with her daughters Mrs. Abbie Russell and Miss Mary Waldo, in the Scotland District. Shortly after she moved, the old homestead was burned to the ground.

Mrs. Waldo was one of the earliest scholars at Abbot Academy, belonging to the class of 1832. She was a member of the John Adams Chapter of the D.A.R. and of the Phoebe Foxcroft Phillips Chapter.

She is survived by six children : Mrs. Elizabeth Ward of Peabody, John Waldo of Franklin, N.H., Mrs. Abbie Russell, Mary, Sarah C. and Joseph Waldo of Andover.

The funeral was held from South Church vestry, Thursday at 2 p.m. Rev. F.R. Shipman officiated. Interment was at South Cemetery."

July 10, 1903- "George H. Goldsmith died at Ossipee N.H. at home of his Lawrence Telegram-) aged mother. He was born in Ossipee, N.H. in 1861, and came to Lawrence at age of 17, learning the printers' trade.

He is survived by his mother, two brothers who live in Ossipee, and two daughters. Burial will be in the family lot in that town."

1920- "Sanford King Goldsmith, a Civil War Veteran, died Feb. 1, 1920, at his home, 89 West Springfield St., Boston. He was born at Wilton, N.H. Jan. 22, 1842. Enlisted as a private in the 4th Batt. Rifles, Mass. Volunteers in 1861. He was taken prisoner on two occasions and was severely wounded at the Battle of Gettysburg.

He was made brevet captain for gallantry at Fort Stedman. Capt. Goldsmith was a member of the Edward W. Kinsley Post No. 113, G.A.R. and the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. He was a member of the 13th and 59th Regiment Associations, having been president of each. Also a member of the Sons of Revolution, Civil War Prisoners' Ass'n. and the Hooker Ass'n. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity at ANDOVER and a charter member of a lodge in St. Albans, Vt.

Surviving, are his wife : Mrs. Olive Moor Goldsmith, a son, Oswald Goldsmith of Peabody, and a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Clark of Salem. Burial was in West Parish Cemetery."

The GOODHUE FAMILY of ANDOVER

Deacon William Goodhue , born 1613, and his first wife, Margery Watson, of Kent, England, came here from Suffolk, England, Nov. 1635. He was a colleague of the Rev. Nath'l Rogers and was elected a deacon of First Church at Ipswich, when he was 26. He was moderator, selectman, and representative to the Colonial Legislature- a man of deep piety, integrity and wisdom.

His first wife lived but a short time, but gave him 2 sons and a daughter, the only children he ever had. His second wife was Mary Webb, a widow ; his 3rd, Bellina Rea, widow of a Jos. Grafton and of Thomas Lathrop ; she died in 1688 and he took for a 4th bride, Rem-Foster of Wenham, 1689. He died in 1702.

Deacon Goodhue took the freeman's oath in Dec. 7, 1636 and had extensive property, by grant and purchase. He was one of the 27 who paid the largest taxes in 1664.

William and his first wife Margery Watson, had :

Joseph, (2), inherited the old homestead.

William (2), Deacon in Church; m. Hannah Dane, daughter of the Rev.

Francis Dane of ANDOVER and Miss Ingalls and cousin to Martha Allen (Carrier) of Withcraft fame); m. 1666; in Chebaceo.

Mary (2) - m. Feb. 23, 1668 Thomas Giddings.

William (2) had to go to jail under Gov. Andros for refusing to collect taxes, and was fined 20 lbs. Ipswich probably paid it. The inhabitants of Chebaceo wanted a new meeting house and a separate parish, apart from Ipswich, in 1676, and Ipswich refused consent to their removal from the 1st church, and the General Court refused to grant leave. William was on a committee to erect the building without permission, so he got the land and prepared to build a plain house. An injunction was served on him. Then the women, led by Mrs. Wm.- our Hannah Dane, took matters in their hands.

They went outside and engaged men to raise the frame of the building, 1679. Two men were arrested for helping them, and the women had to say they were sorry, and pray for forgiveness, which they were willing to do, as the church was up. Shortly after, they were allowed to worship there.

At the death of Mary, wife of Thomas Giddings, grandfather Goodhue took her three children to his home and brought them up.

The family traces their ancestry back to 1280, to Godhuen of Kent.

The name is also spelled Goodhugh, Godhue, Godhew, Goodhew, -the prefix from the Saxon for God.
